

Ikkletots Bandana Bibs for Girls Featured on One Messy Mama Blog

New Bandana Bibs for Girls Featured in Blog Entitled "When Teething and Drooling Strike" by Famed Mommy Blogger Jacqui Bester

SYLMAR, CALIFORNIA, USA, September 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NEW YORK, N.Y. – Ikkletots recently announced the marketplace debut of its new bandana bib collection exclusively for girls, and already top mommy bloggers are featuring the new designs. Jacqui Bester, the popular mom behind the blog One Messy Mama and her daughter Daisy were among the first to try out the new bandana bibs. According to Bester, the new bandana bibs are great for drooling and messy eaters, can be easily matched to any item of clothing in a child's wardrobe, and are "simply fantastic."

Bester reviewed the bibs in a blog entitled, "When Teething & Drooling Strike." Her daughter Daisy was her first experience with a drooling teether, and as a result, lives in her bibs. Bester and her daughter first tried Ikkletots bandana bibs on a trip to a local restaurant. After covering herself in strawberry lemonade, much to Bester's surprise, the bandana bib from Ikkletots kept her daughter dry.

Bester also remarked that the bibs are waterproof, look great after machine-washing, and the adjustable design allows for usage from three months old through toddlerhood.

"I was super impressed at how waterproof the bibs are," wrote Bester in her blog post. "It surrounds the entire neck with this soft, comfy material and not one little drop slipped through!"

Ikkletots baby bandana drool bibs are designed for drooling and teething and can also be used as feeding bibs. Available in four-pack gift sets, the bibs offer versatility, style and functionality. The bandana bibs are made of 100 percent cotton knit on one side with soft fleece on the back. The construction of the bib and unique combination of materials ensures that babies stay dry, clean and comfortable.

Ikkletots baby bandana drool bibs retail for $16.99. More information, including product photos and specifications, is available on the Amazon.com product page.
