The company is also in negotiations for a project to Build related Museums in the United States. The Company has provided for an expedition team that spans the country looking for the creature 10 months out of the year.

The production crew would be joining the team as they go into the wilderness to explore the locations where the creature has been sighted. No reenactments, real action, in real time showing the world the trials and tribulations that the crew go through in their search for the truth.
