

Best Tips For Getting Date-Ready

If you're planning a date with someone who has caught your eye with the potential to be "the one", Aotearoa Beauty has the right advice to help.

LA, CA - CALIFORNIA, USA, August 28, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 1. Get to know each other. Long gone are the days of blind dates and unanswered questions. Send a text message, IM or check out their social media pages: you'll find out more about them so you can plan accordingly (if you're the one organising the date).

2. Get the details right. Make sure you communicate properly with your date on the day, so you know exactly where and when you're meeting. That way you can arrive on time and your risk of being stood up is much lower.

3. Make sure your phone is charged. While you certainly don't want to be using your phone while ON the date, you might need it if either of you are late, or if you find yourself in a sticky situation and need an "emergency" call to save you.

4. Have an "emergency" plan. Ask a friend or family member to call you at the mention of a codeword if you need help escaping from a messy or boring date.

5. Take your purse! Don't rely on the man to pay. That's old school and a rare and valuable asset to find these days. So be ready to pay for your own meal. With any luck he'll surprise you!

6. Pick the right outfit to suit the location, but still look amazing. The last thing you want to do is overdress if you're heading to the local pub; or wear jeans and thongs for a 5 Star restaurant. This is where number 2 tip comes in handy as well – get the details right so you can be prepared.

7. Groom. You never know what might happen or how close you might end up getting, but if you do go in for a kiss at the end of the night, you want to make sure you look your best. That's where a blackhead removal kit or nose hair trimmer might just come in handy.

8. Relax. You'll be no fun if you're tense and tight, so just relax and enjoy the ride. He might be "the one", he might not. Don't put too much pressure on yourself. Just have fun.
