

“Space Dogs: Adventure to the Moon” Lands at UltraStar Multi-tainment Center in addition to an Animal Adoption Event

The event takes place August 27 with dog adoptions from the Pinal County Animal Shelter plus Arizona Animal Welfare League, Pet Planet and #LovePup.

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On August 26th 2016, otherwise known as National Dog Day, (#NationalDogDay) get ready for the journey of a lifetime with the movie “Space Dogs: Adventure to the Moon” when it will land in select theaters throughout Arizona.

“Space Dogs: Adventure to the Moon” is the latest creation from the geniuses of Epic Pictures. The picture is the third installment in the highly successful “Space Dogs” franchise. Staring the voices of TV and film actress Alicia Silverstone and recording artist and actress Ashlee Simpson the newest adventure follows the adventures of Pushok the dog and his search for his long lost father on the moon.

Producers decided to take this premiere a step further by making this an opportunity to aid in finding forever homes for some of the area’s homeless pet population. The film is pairing up with animal rescue groups like the Pinal County Animal Shelter, Arizona Animal Welfare League and the #LovePup Foundation, a group founded by local radio personality Johnjay Van Es and his wife Blake. Adoptable pets will be on hand for the film’s premiere on Saturday, August 27th starting at 11AM at the UltraStar Multi-tainment Center at Ak-Chin Circle in Maricopa, Arizona.

In addition to the adoptable pets on hand, the group has partnered up with other pet vendors in the area, to include Pet Planet, Arizona Animal Welfare League, and more plus a portion of ticket sales from premier will benefit #LovePup.

In addition to the adoption event, there will be character meet and greet photo opportunities, movie promo giveaways and information on the #LovePup, #LoveUp movements as well as the Johnjay & Rich Care for Kids Foundation.

About Space Dogs:

“Space Dogs: Adventure to the Moon” will be released at several Harkins and AMC theatres throughout the valley, with a special engagement taking place at UltraStar Multi-tainment Center in Maricopa. The G-rated film series has grossed more than 30-million-dollars and has received the Dove Family Seal of approval which is given to films that lack sexuality, language, violence, drug and alcohol use, nudity which makes them appropriate for children.
