Kyyba Kidz Foundation

Kyyba Kidz Foundation formerly called Annai Ashramam USA Foundation was established as a 501(C)3 non-profit organization in March 2010. The organization aims to promote the education and general welfare of community through charitable activities. The charitable activities undertaken by Kyyba Kidz include Support for underprivileged children, organize healthcare facilities for elders and children, empower disadvantaged people by improving their education, skills, knowledge and future prospects, care for orphan girls, deserted women and widows, and other underprivileged women by providing necessary tools to help them find employment and improve living assistance. Tel Ganesan is the Founder & President of the Kyyba Kidz Foundations and the President & CEO of Kyyba, a Michigan headquartered global IT, Engineering, Professional staff augmentation company with Customized Project Solutions and Business Consulting Services. He is also currently the President of The Indus Entrepreneurs (TiE) Detroit chapter.

When the objectives, vision and goals of two organizations are so much in sync, it is but obvious that their joint venture and project will only be a success. The Director of School of World Music and Dance, Ms Ramamoorthy says, " You dream it, You do it and You will be it". She truly feels that empowering and encouraging these special people will help us identify more creativity and talents in these children, and with a little bit of motivation some of their unexplored talents and skills can be brought to light early on in life.

"I have felt for most of my life that we all got where we are by dumb luck. We have the moral obligation to share our random advantage with those who are less privileged. The time has arrived to MAKE A DIFFERENCE. I am overwhelmed to work with like minded and multitalented person like Ms.Lalitha Ramamoorthy who has an incredibly inspiring purpose of giving back to our community. I believe in supporting and empowering the underprivileged and these special people by giving them an opportunity to rise in education, bring out their hidden talents and help them build a stronger future for themselves.", said Tel Ganesan, President Kyyba Kidz Foundation.

How can the community help?

The fundraiser Bollywood show "Gehna- Aja Nachle" planned for Sep 10th 2016 is an excellent initiative to encourage the talents of Michigan both amongst the youth and adults to come forward and provide entertainment and help raise funds towards a great cause and vision in mind. The contribution, presence and support of a diverse community in Michigan will not only provide and add value to this noble cause but also lighten our hearts with some fun filled music and dancing that has class, style and entertainment value.

Be there to support a great cause and additionally entertain yourself too. Let us all join hands and continue to make a difference. Your support will help transform lives of these special children.
