SILVER SKIES is a gift for cinema lovers everywhere to revisit some of the great performers of the 1960s, 70s, and 80s in their golden years”

NY Film Critics

Told with humor and compassion, “Silver Skies” chronicles the unexpected developments that occur when a group of eccentric seniors have their lives turned upside down by the sale of their beloved apartment complex. A refreshingly original story about getting older and trying to hold tight to the American Dream.

SILVER SKIES is a gift for cinema lovers everywhere to revisit some of the great performers of the 1960s, 70s, and 80s in their golden years. The movie also stars Howard Hesseman (WKRP IN CINCINNATI) and Dick Van Patten (EIGHT IS ENOUGH).

The SILVER SKIES events will take place at selected US theaters September 26th – 29th, 2017 here, followed by a theatrical run *Please note that not all theaters listed will be participating. A live event is also planned for September 9th at The Crest Westwood Theater, in Los Angeles.

NYFCS® takes place exclusively in theaters and is never available on TV or the Internet. The events, including interviews and interactive audience involvement, are HD Simulcast to 55 select major markets so that everyone throughout the country can enjoy up close and personal moments from major movie stars, producers, writers and directors in the comfort of their own neighborhood theater. On a monthly basis, audiences experience all of the excitement of captured live Q&A sessions hosted by Peter Travers. Each screening brings the energy and VIP nature of prestigious, NYC screenings to nationwide audiences. This is a comprehensive, industry-wide, turn-key marketing tool complete with robust media and in-theater assets to 400+ screens.
