

IT Connect Challenged Entrepreneurs to Showcase their Start-up at New Jersey Tech Expo 2016 & Win Million Dollar Funding

Showcase your Startup to professionals, entrepreneurs, and community members; and engage with like minded professionals, pitch to investor community & network.

EDISON, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2016
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Launched by New Jersey based IT Connect, this event is designed to assemble professionals from different industry sectors to learn more about technology and share new technological advances and best practices with one another. IT Connect aims to bring together the top talent entrepreneurs with seasoned professionals and visionary investors— to innovate and fund the next wave of technological advances that will change the world!

For the aspiring entrepreneur, there is the opportunity to participate and compete in “Start-Up Challenge” and connect with investors and Venture Capitalists. This opportunity is meant to provide a platform for individuals with great ideas- to help them bring ideas from concept to reality.

Nimish Kadakia, Chairman of IT Connect stated: “This innovative event provides a space to establish new business contacts and reconnect with old ones. The educational sessions will provide information from well known speakers and help take your business to the next level. Register your business today to win our entrepreneurship awards and reach out to the investor community for up to million dollars in funding.”

Harry Mehta, Co-Chair of IT Connect stated: “We will showcase and share hands on experiences with tomorrow's technology today... and the most interesting part of the Expo will be tech gadgets on display at the VR Arena.”
