Travel and Tourism is not only the world’s largest service industry, but it’s one which is unique in many ways.

Repolido explains, “Simply put, it builds peace. Travel and Tourism not only boosts economies, but provides economic and social stability to many. Bridges are built, friendships are formed, and countless relationships, of all types, are cultivated as people from different cultures connect and learn from one another through travel.”

Just a year ago, The iTravel Channel TV created the Bangkok Strong movement as a response to the Erawan Shrine bombing in Bangkok, Thailand. The movement brought the entire city together through an uplifting video, “Bangkok Strong: Stand With Us.” The response was overwhelming and the new “Together” short clip builds on the message of unity with a vibrant display of the human spirit.

Both videos are a production of Kirby Studios.

“Together” is sponsored by Kirby Studios, The iTravel Channel TV Media Network, and Thai Airways International.
