

HousingWire Selects Guardian Senior Vice President for its Inaugural Insiders Award

Cheryl Brown receives this prestigious honor

DALLAS, TEXAS, USA, September 3, 2016
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Home mortgage industry leader Guardian Mortgage Company Inc. is pleased to announce the selection of Cheryl Brown, Senior Vice President, Head of Operations, as a winner of HousingWire's first annual Insiders award.

This award was created to recognize the lesser-known, but no less significant, contributors to the mortgage finance industry, whether in the lending, servicing, investing or real estate sectors. The 26 winners were chosen by HousingWire's editorial staff based on contributions to their company's success in the past 12 months. The individuals who were selected for this honor were identified as those who continuously go above and beyond their roles to ensure their organizations stand out from the competition.

Cheryl Brown, SVP and Head of Operations for Guardian Mortgage

Brown began her long-term, ladder-climbing career with Guardian as a loan processor 34 years ago at the company's Grand Blanc, Michigan location. "Being included in this elite group of individuals is an absolute honor,"• said Brown. "This recognition for the people behind the scenes of an organization highlights how we have adapted to the ever-changing regulatory landscape of the mortgage industry and our dedication to client satisfaction."

"Due to Cheryl's diligent work, our closing department is now one of the greatest assets in Guardian's loan process," stated Marcus McCue, Guardian's Executive Vice President and Chief Business Development Officer. "Cheryl has completed loan process mapping to track loan turn times, improve consistency and implement best practices for pipeline management. In addition, Cheryl has ensured we've retained our most experienced loan processors, disclosure colleagues, and underwriters during an unprecedented time of recruitment for these key operational positions in one of the most active markets for mortgage lending."•
