Our newly launched proprietary WizeTV streaming app is contained within a high-tech plug-in Mini PC running Windows 10. WizeTV turns your TV into a smart TV, capable of searching the internet, accessing email and streaming video content from all over the web. The primary component of WizeTV is an innovative state-of-the-art online search engine. It searches the internet for streaming feeds including live TV stations, all genres of music, and movies. This innovative technology will save the cost of pay TV and other movie services. This WizeTV plug & play device is easy to set-up and learn the interface. It rapidly searches for content from the internet and organizes it into an user friendly browser. The viewer will be able to search available content based on various genre classifications and categories such as International TV, music, movies and other content - right at their fingertips.

WizeTV allows the user to access all subscription-based streaming apps such as Netflix, Crackle, Hulu and more. All WizeTV requires is your standard home WiFi connection to unlock its powerful entertainment search engine.

The cost is a reasonable one-time fee of $149 with no associated monthly bill and the purchaser can enjoy unlimited access to various entertainment. It simply turns any regular TV with an HDMI connection into a smart TV, where the viewer can also enjoy full web browsing. The device runs Windows 10, and includes Wifi and Bluetooth Connectivity. Viewers can experience a wide range of streaming tv shows, movies, and music via Pandora or Iheartradio. The search feature also supports HD videos, in addition to most other video formats.

By utilizing the WizeTV feature, an individual can surf through Facebook, twitter, Gmail and other social media accounts as well. We encourage you to compare WizeTV to Apple TV, Amazon Fire Stick, and Roku.

WizeTV is offering a special deal for a limited time in which the purchasers will receive a free high-tech keyboard/mouse with the WizeTV package. More information about the product can be viewed on our website located at www.Wize.tv. Made in The USA.
