

Hills Invest Historical Record in Savings for One Month, About $1.2 Million in New Accounts.

PALM BEACH, FLORIDA, ESTADOS UNIDOS, September 12, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hills Invest (<https://www.hillsinvest.com/>), record income under amounts openings for new savings accounts for the month of August for $1.2 million historic.

Since its founding in 2008 to operate from its headquarters in Atlanta, Hills Invest maintained a stable average upward at an angle as to revenue for new savings accounts in Latin America. But from this year they have opted to raise interest rates to pay, from 1.65% in installments 30 days.

According to his representative Johana Shamblin, "This year we returned to win a federal government program to attract new clients in Latin America, who wished to place their savings accounts in our country. Thanks to this stimulus have managed to break our own record in 2005. We have the best market rates and an excellent reputation level customer in the region. We hope to continue to achieve our goals."

Invest Hills affiliated and sister company Atlantic Trust Company NA has offices in Atlanta and Palm Beach. It addresses all the Latin American market offering savings accounts. They have contracts and agreements with some pension funds in the region and have managed to overcome this difficult market when it comes to so many countries and different idiosyncrasies.
