(SMi, 2016.09.14) Export control experts meet in Amsterdam in 2 weeks' time to discuss the latest global arms control updates from Government and Industry

AMSTERDAM, NETHERLANDS, September 14, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After the outstanding success of last year's event, Europe's Leading Arms Export Controls conference, Defence Exports 2016, returns to Amsterdam in 2 weeks' time to bring together international trade lawyers, Government officials, trade compliance consultants and defence-industry export control professionals from across the world to discuss the latest regulatory updates on international export controls.

Registration to the conference is closing soon. The event's official website is www.defence-exports.com/EIN

Defence Exports 2016 will provide crucial

ITAR, ECR, EAR and OFAC updates as well as changes to national European export controls from long-standing EU members, recent members as well as non-EU national updates. Alongside the elite panel of government speakers, senior international trade compliance professionals will discuss the key challenges in compliance and topics include cyber security and export violations, electronic data services such as cloud and how to comply, global trade compliance programmes and self-disclosure.
