

Market Traders Institute, Inc. Hosts "Teeing For Ta-Tas" Charity Golf Scramble to Benefit Florida Hospital for Women

MTI launches Orlando's first big event for Breast Cancer Awareness Month at Dubsdread Golf Course on October 1, 2016 at 8:30 AM.

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, September 19, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Market Traders Institute, Inc. is holding its first-ever charity golf scramble, "Teeing for Ta-Tas," as the opening event in Orlando for this year's Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Beginning at 8:30 AM at Dubsdread Golf Course on October 1st, Teeing Fore Ta-Tas will provide a great way for golfers and spectators to start this important fundraising month with a full-featured, exciting golfing event.

Teeing For Ta-Tas is one of the new additions this year to MTI's "Trading For Ta-Tas" Campaign, which has an ultimate goal of donating $35,000 to Florida Hospital for Women. A local company for financial education, MTI chose to partner with Florida Hospital for Women due to their continued life-changing efforts of diagnosing, treating, and rehabilitating breast cancer patients in Central Florida. All of the donations earned throughout this campaign will be donated to supporting those fighting the battle of their lives, and those who have survived the fight.

Joshua Martinez, Director of Student Success, is excited about his company's first-ever charity golf scramble. According to Martinez, "We wanted to begin our Trading For Ta-Tas campaign with a big event, and with the help of Dubsdread and many other amazing sponsors, we're going to be enjoying the first morning of Breast Cancer Awareness month having fun and raising money." He says, "We want to see Orlando's best golfers helping us out at Teeing For Ta-Tas!"

Each Teeing For Ta-Tas charity golf scramble ticket includes an 18-hole round of golf at Dubsdread, a golf cart, a catered barbecue lunch, hole prizes and a raffle entry. Individual tickets can be purchased for $100, and a team of 4 can sign up together for $400 at www.TeeingForTaTas.com.

Current sponsors for the event include Tito's Handmade Vodka, Orlando Brewing, Red Bull,

“Every dollar going to research and early detection matters, so we are hoping to far surpass our $35,000 goal this year, and Teeing For Ta-Tas is going to be a really fun way for us to do it!”

Greenberg Traurig, Viewability, Financial Media Corp and The Law Offices of Aubrey Harry Ducker Jr. In addition, some sponsorship options still remain, including the opportunities to sponsor both holes and golf carts. More information about these sponsorships may also be found at www.TeeingForTaTas.com.

“Raising this money means hundreds of women will be afforded the opportunity for free early detection screenings, which can lead to early treatment and successful results. Never do we want a family to experience the loss of a loved one due to breast cancer, like my family did several years ago,” says Jacob Martinez, President of MTI. “Every dollar
