

Old European and Old Mine Diamond Appraisers Julie and E. Ralph Morgan G.G. Celebrate 30 Years of Gemological Expertise

AUSTIN, TEXAS, USA, September 20, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Julie & E. Ralph Morgan, G.G., A.G.A.-A.S.G. have lectured on, appraised, photographed, purchased and sold thousands of old European and old mine diamonds over the last three decades since Ralph became a Graduate Gemologist in residence from the Gemological Institute of America then located in Santa Monica, Calif.

The unsolicited client reviews and testimonials on their website's Client Reviews page at www.oldeuropeandiamonds.com speak for satisfied client experiences over their 30 years of handling these diamonds from the past.

As a past Governing Board Member of the Accredited Gemologists Association he has performed numerous charitable fundraising events for museums, libraries and children's shelters. He has spoken in front of civic and professional organizations about Edwardian and Victorian jewelry and the corresponding gemstones found in these fine family heirlooms.

Mr. Morgan is also a former Navy SEAL known for his high-risk gemstone expeditions. In the past 30 years he has orchestrated missions for private individuals into the Venezuelan jungle, African savannah, and the Afghan mountain ranges, to name a few.

The Morgans can be reached via email at Rockman@aol.com or through their contact page at www.oldeuropeandiamonds.com, or using the toll-free phone number: 1-888-724-8269. They welcome requests for client references.
