

Join Bahrain Ministry of Works, AGi Architects, Aedas and more at façade design forum

MANAMA, BAHRAIN, September 21, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bahrain is working on 40 environmentally-friendly building projects as part of its sustainable development initiative. At the same time Saudi Arabia is focusing on low-energy, sustainable architecture and spending on building exteriors which is expected to increase from $8 billion this year to $12 billion in 2024.

In light of this, IQPC is organising the Façade Design and Engineering Bahrain and Saudi Arabia conference taking place from 5-6 December in Manama, Bahrain.
