

Dairy Products Market to Grow at a 5.3% CAGR Analysis and Forecast to 2022

WiseGuyReports.Com Publish a New Market Research Report On –“Dairy Products Market”.

PUNE, INDIA, September 22, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Global Dairy products market is estimated to grow at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 5.3% between 2015 and 2022. Increasing population, rising demand for dairy products from developing countries and improvement in operational efficiency are some of the major factors favoring the market. Moreover, increasing consumption coupled with better margins in VADPs, growth in application sectors and increasing concerns towards healthy lifestyle are propelling this market growth. However, growing number of disposal incomes and increasing shares of VADPs in overall dairy products augurs the market growth. Emerging economies due to changing consumer dietary patterns will offer significant growth opportunities. The challenges faced by the market are traditional supply chain channels. The increase in demand from developing countries provides a massive opportunity for the existing players and new entrants.
