

Psychic and Medium Samantha Fe to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

Learn the secrets to understanding energy and discover the path of your destiny

RENO, NEVADA, USA, September 23, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We are all spirits in human bodies. Our spirit is eternal.

Before we assume a body and our life begins, our spirit makes an agreement: a soul contract. These are lessons our soul is destined to learn in this lifetime regardless of our choices and free will.

Samantha Fe can help guide you toward discovering who you are as a spirit. As a psychic and medium, Samantha can read the energetic frequencies around us and translate those frequencies into words to help us better understand our purpose.

Samantha says she first discovered her psychic abilities at 12 years old when she was suddenly thrust into an intense past life memory. For years she did whatever she could to turn it off, but at 23 she finally decided to pay more attention to her gifts and move through the experiences in her life that had caused her pain.

“It wasn’t until I was able to sort through my own healing that I could be there for other people and their process,” recalls Samantha.”

Today, Samantha’s intention is centered on healing, reflecting and receiving. Each reading is designed to help you uncover and reveal your own answers; this is where the healing takes place so you can begin to experience personal growth, both as an individual and as a spirit.

Samantha says her clients all share a desire for change and a desire for growth. They typically meet with her because they’re curious about what she can see beyond, but she also brings the skills of a certified life coach: holding their hand through the process and holding them accountable

“I don’t believe in talk therapy,” explains Samantha. “I prefer to get straight to the core: What is the soul contract? What are the lessons this person is meant to learn? What is the problem right now and how can we get beyond it?"

She says so much more transformation is possible when she and the client trust each other and can be vulnerable with each other.

"I've always had an internal drive toward something more," says Samantha. "To bear witness to the transformation in my clients toward loving themselves and the role I play in their lives simply by being myself, there's nothing in this world that feels better. This work is so incredibly rewarding. It hasn't been easy, but it's been worth it."

CUTV News Radio will feature Samantha Fe in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on September 27th at 11am EDT.
