

MetaTrader 5 Android build 1372: Multiple charts now on smartphones and tablets

LIMASSOL, CYPRUS, September 26, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The new version of the MetaTrader 5 Android mobile platform features the optimized use of price charts:

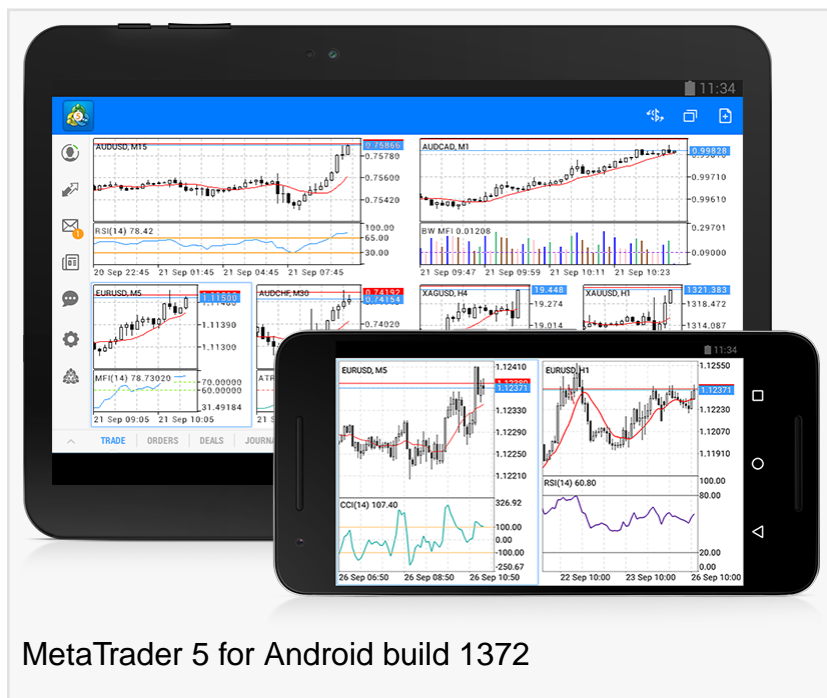

1. The application supports the multi-window mode allowing traders to monitor price changes on multiple symbols simultaneously.
2. Added the ability to change an indicator subwindow height.
3. Now, the mobile platform features a symbol fast selection button and a separate menu of chart settings.

These are not all the innovations available in the latest application version. We have also added the ability to edit indicator levels and translated the interface into Bulgarian.

Update your application right now — the latest MetaTrader 5 for your Android device is already available on Google Play!
