

Jackson Commercial Real Estate Opens for Business

Commercial Broker Enters Entrepreneurship and Launches His Own Firm

JACKSONVILLE, FL, USA, September 26, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Randy Jackson is no stranger to the commercial real estate market – he’s been brokering deals for over 28 years and has consistently been a top performer in North Florida CRE. His experience at many top firms, including CBRE, Trammell Crow Company, Liberty Property Trust, and most recently Hoff & Leigh, developed his extensive experience, which spans over 620 transactions totaling more than 4 million square feet and over $340 million in total consideration. As an established broker and recognized name in the Jacksonville market, Randy felt that his experience would best serve his clients if he could offer a more personalized approach – and the vision for Jackson Commercial Real Estate was born.

“What sets Jackson Commercial Real Estate apart from other commercial real estate firms is that we utilize a Strategic Marketing platform. Not only does JCRE use the traditional search engines CoStar and LoopNet to market property, but we also utilize all of the social mediums afforded to us in this social media world we live in, such as Twitter, Google+, Bing, Craigslist, Facebook, LinkedIn, and many more. We have found that more and more of our clients are social media savvy and realize the benefits associated with an enormous audience that is available to them by retaining JCRE to lease or sell their particular property. We tailor our strategy, to align with the clients’ personal objectives and aim to accomplish and/or exceed said objectives. We also employ a similar strategy when representing a client to lease or acquire property for their intended use. JCRE emphasizes open and honest communication, and especially personal attention to each assignment, thereby facilitating the client’s needs first and foremost. JCRE emphasizes the concept of quality not quantity, thus personalized attention to their goals and objectives,” said broker and owner of Jackson Commercial, Randy Jackson.

Randy is joined by partner Nancy Eckstein, both of whom have a remarkable family history in the real estate industry. Randy’s family built over 300 homes in the Jacksonville, Florida area while Nancy’s family owned the Eckstein Empire of multi-family properties. In addition, Jackson Commercial has a full sales support team to offer clients exceptional service for acquisition of new investment properties or sale of their current assets.
