This invitation-only conference will be the flagship event of New York City Real Estate Tech Week 2016, the biggest global gathering of the real estate technology community, with 20+ events across New York City.

The MIPIM PropTech Summit will be the first conference in North America to be part of the renowned MIPIM series of events, which includes MIPIM UK, MIPIM Asia Summit, MIPIM Japan, MAPIC, and the MIPIM flagship event in Cannes, France, a 4-day exhibition, conference and networking event with more than 21,000 international attendees.
