David DiPaolo will speak about "Private Debt Investing: Opportunities and Risks" where he will share insights about private debt investing and the increasing investor appetite for alternative sources of yield to meet return expectations in the current low interest rate environment. As banks have retrenched due to increasing regulatory burdens, non-bank lenders are filling the gap for much needed corporate financing.

WAIS World Alternative Investment Summit is curated by Radius Financial Education (Radius), featuring panel discussions with top-level international speakers, fund managers and leading service providers. WAIS Bermuda brings together over 300 delegates to explore every side of alternative investments.
