

Exodus Aviation Leverages Exim Bank Export Insurance by obtaining a Florida Export Finance guaranteed credit facility.

Exodus Aviation is leveraging its resources to grow and create new jobs in our community.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, October 3, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Exodus Aviation is an emerging aviation asset management, parts distributor, and engineering firm based out of Fort Lauderdale, FL. In May Exodus Aviation was able to put in place an Exim Bank export insurance policy on its export receivables. The Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM) is the official export credit agency of the United States. EXIM is an independent, self-sustaining Executive Branch agency with a mission of supporting American jobs by facilitating the export of U.S. goods and services.

When private sector lenders are unable or unwilling to provide financing, EXIM fills in the gap for American businesses by equipping them with the financing tools necessary to compete for global sales. In doing so, the Bank levels the playing field for U.S. goods and services going up against foreign competition in overseas markets, so that American companies can create more good-paying American jobs.

Exodus has now partnered with Florida Export Finance Corporation known as (FEFC). In a continuing effort to improve its services to the Florida business community the State of Florida formed a new entity under Florida Statute 288.770. The Florida Export Finance Corporation (FEFC) was created in 1993 as a not for profit corporation with a mandate to expand employment and income opportunities for Florida residents' will assist exporters and lenders in arranging loans exceeding the FEFC limits in order to complete an export sale of any size including Ex-Im Bank product and project loans and SBA loans.

FEFC was able to guarantee Exodus Aviation a guarantee credit facility that will help exodus expand on its exports of US manufactured aircraft parts to other countries. It allows Exodus Aviation to be competitive against its major competitors. With the partnership of FEFC and Exim Bank, Exodus Aviation is able to add more jobs to the community and continue to grow its exports from the State of Florida.
