Skin on Skin is a short film that follows the footsteps of a young runaway girl chasing her dreams as she discovers the world of beauty inherent inside of herself and each of us. Travel with her as she explores her dreams with perseverance, beauty, and courage, then loses the love of her life, her fiancé, (late rock icon guitarist, Steve Clark from multi-platinum rock band Def Leppard,) at the height of her career as a model/muse to the Grand Masters of Fashion. A resonating story that inspires you to follow your heart.

"The body is a priceless suit of clothes." Marianne Williamson

Skin on Skin is based on the best selling memoir, Runway RunAway: A Backstage Pass to Fashion, Romance and Rock 'n Roll. Lorelei Shellist, model, designer, producer, also works tirelessly with women in prison and at-risk teens. She shares her true and candid story illustrating how just below the surface of our skin -one dream always leads to another.

Skin on Skin includes authentic, vintage VHS film footage from Lorelei's own video archives, runway fashion shows, (circa 1980's, Paris, France,) and behind the scenes footage of Def Leppard's Hysteria World Tour 1987-1989 Original music composed by Peitor Angell - with musical contribution "Switch 625" written by Steve Clark of Def Leppard.

The film features fashions from the Runway Runaway Collection®, a women's apparel line "for the woman on the run who thrives in her skin" by Lorelei Shellist.
