

TRIBUTES TO POP ART ICONS AND KRAFTWERK MUSIC DEFINE THE FIRST WEEK OF ONE DANCE WEEK FESTIVAL IN PLOVDIV, Bulgaria

The ninth edition of the International festival of contemporary dance and performance ONE DANCE WEEK starts on October 9th

PLOVDIV, PLOVDIV, BULGARIA, October 9, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The opening night is dedicated to physicality and elegance of modern dance, with the renowned American choreographer Stephen Petronio presenting his Bloodlines project. For the first time the public in Bulgaria can see the emblematic miniatures RainForest and Glacial Decoy created by the legends of modern dance, Merce

Cunningham and Trisha Brown, and at 6pm on 9 October the visitors of Boris Hristov House of Culture will experience the Stephen Petronio show In Motion, which celebrates the 30th anniversary of the creation of his dance company.

On 13 October, at 7.30pm you are invited at Boris Hristov House of Culture for the Are Friends Electric? show by choreographer Yuval Pick, director of Chorégraphique de Rillieux-la-Pape, France, that takes you on a journey with the music of Kraftwerk. The visit of Centre Chorégraphique National de Rillieux-la-Pape is happening with the support of French Institute in Bulgaria, Embassy of the Republic of France and Societe Generale Expressbank.

The first festival week closes on 14 October, at 7.30pm in Boris Hristov House of Culture, with two impressive miniatures of the stars of the Korean dance scene: Goblin Party. Soul Piercing is inspired by the Korean burial traditions, while Shyness is a beautiful and disturbing reflection on loneliness in modern world. The visit of Goblin Party is happening in partnership with Seoul International Choreography Festival.

One Dance Week festival in Plovdiv continues until 30 October.
