

A VOTE BECOMING TRADITION IN ECUADOR

This year, Ecuador is nominated again for the World Travel Awards in 14 categories

QUITO, PICHINCHA, ECUADOR, October 10, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The country in the center of the world, is present in the Oscars of international Tourism, the World Travel Awards with 14 nominations including the beauty of its four worlds: Galápagos, Pacific Coast, Andes and Amazon.

Ecuador is nominated in the World's Leading Adventure Tourism Destination and World's Leading Green Destination categories. Its main cities are also nominated, Quito for World's Leading Destination and Guayaquil for World's Leading Business Travel Destination.

Services in Quito are the most nominated at national level, in the following categories: World's Leading Airport (Mariscal Sucre International Airport), World's Leading Boutique Hotel and World's Leading Luxury All Suite Hotel (Hotel Plaza Grande), plus the World's Leading Conference Hotel and World's Leading Hotel (Swissôtel).

The country is also present in the World's Leading Eco-lodge (Kapawi Eco lodge & Reserve), World's Leading Luxury Train (Tren Crucero), World's Leading Tourist Board (Ecuador Ministry of Tourism), World's Leading Green Hotel (Finch Bay Eco Hotel) and World's Leading Boutique Cruise (Ocean Adventures).

Undoubtedly, these awards are a boost for Ecuador to improve and continue to grow in the tourism industry, it also helps as an incentive for people who don't know and have not experienced our country and its four worlds, so they can dare to live this amazing journey.

If you've already visited the country that has everything or you are interested in experience this once in a lifetime journey, vote for Ecuador in order to support tourism in this corner of the world that welcomes everyone with open arms. Do it, an incredibly diverse world is waiting for you.
