

South Florida Sky Zone Guests Jump All Week for Red Cross Hurricane Relief

Sky Zone Trampoline Parks in South Florida will host a week-long fundraising event between now and Oct. 14 to help the Red Cross respond to Hurricane Matthew.

MIAMI / FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, UNITED STATES, October 12, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sky Zone Trampoline Parks in South Florida will host a week-long fundraising event to benefit the American Red Cross in its hurricane relief efforts in the United States and abroad.

Sky Zone parks in Pompano Beach, Miami and Cutter Bay will donate $2 for every regularly priced 90 minute jump ticket and $3 for every regularly priced 120 minute jump ticket to the Red Cross Hurricane Relief Fund purchased between Tuesday, Oct. 11 and Friday, Oct. 14.

“We want to do what we can to raise funds for those in need of hurricane relief,” said Cliff Schmitt, general manager of Sky Zone Fort Lauderdale. “We expect our generous Sky Zone guests will jump at the opportunity to partner with us on this very worthy cause,” Schmitt said.

“

We want to do what we can to raise funds for those in need of hurricane relief. We expect our generous Sky Zone guests will jump at the opportunity to partner with us on this very worthy cause.

Cliff Schmitt, general manager of Sky Zone Fort Lauderdale

For more information on the American Red Cross, or to donate directly, please visit www.redcross.org. To purchase advanced jump tickets and check hours of operation, visit www.skyzone.com and select the location closest to you.

Guests of Sky Zone Trampoline Parks jump all week to raise money for American Red Cross hurricane relief

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases.

© 1995-2016 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.