

Brexit - European Bank CEOs come to meet UK Fintech Founders

The Future of Banking

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, October 14, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Critical Future are holding an event on the Future of Banking to be delivered with the Department for International Trade of the British government at the Locarno Room.

The event centres on a delegation of Bank CEOs from across Europe meeting with the founders of Fintech firms in London.

This event will take place at the Locarno Suite where British state occasions such as Royal Birthdays and the signing of important political treaties have taken place in the past. It was described by architect George Gilbert Scott as “a kind of national palace, or drawing-room for the nation”.

Drawing Room of the British Nation

It will include a lunch hosted by Alastair Lukies CBE - Chairman, Innovate Finance and Prime Minister's Business Ambassador for FinTech.

The most important event in Fintech in 2016”
Adam Riccoboni

The event takes place on the 17th October 2016.

I am the entrepreneur behind this unique event, and happy to provide the full background to this story. For further information, please get in touch.

Best wishes

Adam
