

Talent Beyond Borders; Jordan Andrews

Jordan Andrews is an accomplished singer, dancer and actor from the Philippines who has taken his talents to new heights in the U.K. and United States

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, November 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As a young boy from the Philippines, Jordan Andrews dreamt of a life entertaining others and sharing his story with the world. Today his dreams are coming true thanks to decades of training, hard work and determination.

Jordan started performing at the age of 3 and later studied the performing arts full time at the Barbara Speake Stage School which was run by Lady Barbara Speake and the late June Collins. (Mother of music icon Phil Collins). His loving and supportive parents met in London and moved there from humble beginnings in the Philippines. It was there that he gained notoriety performing in the musicals Miss Saigon and The King And I in London's West End.

As with all performers, Mr. Andrews has had his fair share of rejection and disappointment in the industry.

Talent INC was such an amazing platform for me to re-launch myself into the US market.”

“I would say that one of the biggest obstacles I have had to overcome is finding a new self-confidence in who I am as an adult now. As a child actor, I was constantly working in tv, commercials and theatre. Then the awkward teen years came and I still found success as a teen star in the Philippines with Star Magic 15” Jordan tells us.

Luckily, Jordan has an amazing support system around him from the relationships he built at Talent INC, a development and marketing company with separate entities in the United States, Great Britain and Canada.

“Talent INC was such an amazing platform for me to re-launch myself into the US market. The agents, casting directors, producers and directors I was able to connect with at their event have worked closely with me. I don't think that I could have moved to LA if it wasn't for the opportunities presented to me through their expertise” he went on to explain.

Since attending Talent INC in the Spring of 2013 Jordan has been signed with top talent manager, Lea Patrick at Patrick Talent Management and Lauren Green at Green & Green Talent Group. Thanks to his incredible team he has since booked roles in national commercials like Credit Karma, and a speaking role in a TV pilot called "The 101" to name just a few.

Andrews is also a headliner in the music scene where he can be seen performing in some of L.A.'s most elite nightclubs not to mention the LA Music Festival and Philippine Independence Day Festival. His vocal talents can be heard on iTunes, Apple Music and Spotify as the lead singer of Fearless BND.

"Jordan Andrews embodies what Talent INC is all about. He strives for excellence and is professional and kind to everyone he meets" Talent INC founder, Scott Cooper said about working with Jordan.

Jordan is planning to return to Los Angeles this year with the support his representatives.
