Donald Fowler of Worden Capital Management currently hiring college graduates entering the Investment Brokerage industry. Sponsorship for series 7 stock broker.

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, NY, USA, October 19, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At Worden Capital Management, Donald Fowler brings together people, ideas and capital to bring about progress. We expect everyone at the firm to be a contributor. No one can survive at Worden Capital Management as just an employee. This is why we make an unusual effort to identify and recruit people who, in addition to their intellect, share our commitment to leadership in business and to the communities where we work and live.

We are currently recruiting college graduates for these fully sponsored Series 7 Stockbroker positions:

Financial Services Representative.
Stock Broker Trainee.
Student sponsored PT positions.

These positions are all paid hourly, and mentor based with unlimited room for upside growth within the company.

Candidates must be highly motivated self-starters, with the ability to work well and succeed in a team/group environment.

The entry level positions all demand an above average level of telephonic conversational skills coupled with a strong desire to constantly improve on day to day functions.

Initially We Offer:

- In house class training/study sessions for all required licenses. Full Sponsorship for candidates to take any and all FINRA series exams.
- All books and materials needed to pass exams.
- Extra help/tutoring.
- Mentoring and training with experienced senior personnel to jump start your career.
- Individual daily mentorship with a Senior Representative at the company.
- "Earn as you Learn" program for all trainees.

What is expected for success:

- Desire to further one self and build a long standing career.
- Motivated attitude combined with a flawless work ethic.
- Ability to communicate with prospects and clients.
- Phone and face to face networking.
