

B & J Get Propositioned on emPOWERme.tv

Emmy nominated Mike Larsen has teamed up with Brooke Burgstahler and Jocelyn Cruz to take an informative and humorous look at the California propositions.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, October 20, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In an effort to encourage more Californians to vote, Emmy nominated writer Mike Larsen (Real Time with Bill Maher) has teamed up with writer/actors Brooke Burgstahler and Jocelyn Cruz (The Positive Revolution) to take an informative and humorous look at the seventeen ballot propositions on the November ballot.

Now available for viewing on emPOWERme.tv's YouTube channel, the video series aims to fairly address both the PRO and CON perspectives of each proposition up for vote.

Whether firmly Democrat or Republican, liberal or conservative-- B&J Get Propositioned serves to deliver the facts and allow the viewer to decide how they will cast their vote.

May bi-partisanship rule the day!

Actresses and activists Brooke Burgstahler and Jocelyn Cruz of The Positive Revolution delightfully dish out to Californians a fresh and interesting take on how their taxes could be allocated, what legalization or marijuana really means, how overturning the death penalty could affect the state and more!

With the purpose to educate and entertain, B&J Get Propositioned is the first series of its kind and will serve as a hopeful and helpful tool for all 38.8 million Californians.
