

Registration now open for 10th annual Mobile Deployable Communications conference

10th Annual Mobile Deployable Communications is now open for registration

LONDON, SELECT, UNITED KINGDOM, October 21, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group is delighted to announce that registration is now open for its leading telecommunications conference, the 10th Annual Mobile Deployable Communications, taking place in Warsaw, Poland on the 2nd and 3rd February 2017.

Sponsored by General Dynamics Mission Systems, Tampa Microwave and Thales, this year's event is already set to be huge, with over 100 attendees expected from the military, government and industry.

Join senior decision makers to discuss some of the most forward thinking, next-generation tactical communication capabilities in the army today. This exciting annual event boasts strong support from its hosting nation, the Polish Armed Forces, who due to external threats to national and regional security, are modernising their systems and enhancing capabilities, including tactical communications, making it the prime location for such a specialist conference.

Speakers for 2017 include an unrivalled range of senior representatives from the: Polish Armed Forces, DGA France, DISA Europe, Belgian Defence, Netherlands MoD, Spanish MoD, Multinational Corps North East, EU Military Staff, U.S Army Europe, European Defence Agency, NATO Force Integration Unit Poland, General Dynamics Mission Systems, Thales and many more still to be announced.

There will also be 2, half day workshops on: 'Optimising Interoperability of Mobile Networks in the Tactical Domain' hosted by Hosted by Peter Sevenich, Head of the Robust Networks Research Group from Fraunhofer FKIE and 'How To Do Business With The Polish Armed Forces' led by Jaroslaw Solak, President of SAGA Aero. All three unmissable events will bring together heads of J6, heads of signal branches heads of CIS and heads of land G6 and other relevant communications specialists.
