

2016 Marks Highest Honors for Female-Owned Columbus Technology Services Company

4th Recognition for Outstanding Achievement in Technology and Entrepreneurship Awarded to Cybervation, Inc.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, UNITED STATES, October 27, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Celebrating another milestone in girl power, Cybervation receives its 4th award for female-driven business entrepreneurship in 2016. Yesterday, Smart Business awarded its Smart 50 Award to Cybervation's CEO, Purba Majumder, for leadership and innovation. Cybervation is a certified minority and woman-owned business located in Dublin, OH. The October Smart 50 Awards recognize the top executives of the 50 smartest companies in the central Ohio region.

Reflecting on her achievement in innovation, impact, and sustainability, Purba says that "Cybervation is truly humbled and honored to be recognized as an Honoree. This year's list of diverse businesses proves the fact that diversity encourages innovation and creativity in the workplace. Cybervation is proud to be a local leader in diversity and innovation in the technology solutions industry."

In September of 2016, Smart Business awarded the Smart Woman Award for Progressive Organization to Cybervation. This award recognizes Cybervation's community service initiative to improve the lives of women and girls in central Ohio.

Cybervation launched CoolTechGirls in 2013, a nonprofit that empowers girls and women towards STEM careers and learning opportunities.

In August, Purba also received the 2016 Ohio Asian Award for philanthropic leadership and female empowerment in her community. Cybervation's award-winning year began back in March, when the city of Dublin, Ohio bestowed a proclamation to Cybervation in honor of National Entrepreneurship Week.
