Fresh off of dropping new single Pocket Watching, Ca$h Out tells us about his new music and where he comes from:

"The concept is very relatable, its just about going through life experiences, coming from nothing. People worried about what you have, and have going on, so you have to watch and stay on top of everything you do. A lot of people love to stay in your business anyway, and you see so many that make it and then they lose their lives. So you have to stay on point, with the way people pocket watch. I don't have a set date yet for the album, I have recorded 4 new tracks. I'm just getting everything together at this point."

So much is jam-packed into the new issue of SOM Magazine you don't want to miss it!
