

Opposition Party Talk Show Host Arrested In St Vincent

KINGSTOWN, ST VINCENT , October 29, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Police here in St Vincent have arrested an Opposition New Democratic Party talk show host.

Igal Adams, a host of the New Times radio program aired on Nice Radio 96.7FM, was arrested on Friday night.

The Police Public Relations could not confirm the report to News784, since that department is closed on the weekend.

However, a reliable source told News784 that Adams has become a person of interest in a matter reported to the Police last week involving the sexual molestation of a minor.

The report made, alleges that the minor was sexually molested at the age of 11 and 12. The minor is now 14 years old.

At the time of this publication, the source indicated that the talk show host was still in Police custody.

The source also indicated that the New Democratic Party is already making plans for an alternate host(s) for the program, should the Police decide to press charges.
