STORY ABOUT JONATHAN CAREY PUBLISHED IN A NEW CHICKEN SOUP FOR THE SOUL BOOK TITLED "ANGELS AND MIRACLES"

DELMAR, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES,
November 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lisa Carey, mother of Jonathan Carey, a 13-year-old, developmentally disabled boy with Autism, who was killed by his caregiver during an illegal restraint in 2007 has written a short story about her son titled, "Riding a White Horse in Heaven." Her Story has recently been published by Chicken Soup for the Soul in a book of inspirational stories titled "Angels and Miracles" which will be in bookstores today November 1, 2016.

A summary of Jonathan's life can also be viewed on You Tube which contains the photo of Jonathan with a white horse which is referenced in the story

Three Months after Jonathan was killed, the Governor of New York State signed Jonathan's Law which ensures that families of the disabled have access to all records and incidents of abuse regarding their care in all facilities statewide which were previously withheld from families.

Lisa has also completed a full-length nonfiction book detailing the entire story of Jonathan's life and her family's heartbreaking journey through tragedy which has led them to fight for the rights of the disabled in New York State. She is currently seeking a literary agent to assist in publishing this book.
