

26th Annual Minnesota Lawful Gambling Convention & Expo in Rochester, MN November 17-19, 2016

ST. PAUL, MN, USA, November 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Allied Charities of Minnesota \(ACM\) is sponsoring the 26th Annual Minnesota Lawful Gambling Convention & Expo in Rochester convening on Thursday, November 17, and running until Saturday, November 19. ACM expects 1000 charitable gambling delegates from across the state to attend the three-day Convention & Expo being held at the Mayo Civic Center in Rochester.

In addition to featuring forty-three seminars and workshops on a variety of charitable gambling topics, ACM will also be creating its legislative priorities for 2017. The exhibit hall will be filled with twenty-eight exhibitors from all elements of the charitable gambling industry.

Allen Lund, ACM Executive Director said, "We look forward to an exciting Convention & Expo". In addition to the regulatory seminars, ACM will sponsor workshops for industry discussions on various topics of interests to charitable gambling organizations and the latest games, machines, and other gambling tools at our expo exhibit hall.

The Gambling Control Board will also hold its regular monthly November meeting at the Convention Center to coincide with the Convention & Expo. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, November 18. Immediately following the Gambling Control Board meeting ACM will hold its annual meeting to establish its 2017 Legislative Program and elected several regional directors.

ACM members can still sign up by visiting the ACM web site www.alliedcharitiesmn.org by November 11, 2016. After that date all registrations must be on site.

The Minnesota Lawful Gambling Convention & Expo is the largest charitable gambling convention of its kind in the nation.
