

RED ARROW LEADER TO GIFT GENIE

A revolutionary approach to finding and giving gifts that will save you time and make people happy.

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, November 14, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MyGiftGenie has recently been launched to solve the problem of forgetting memorable events and struggling to find that perfect gift. Despite setting laptop reminders, Former Red Arrows leader Jas Hawker (45) nearly forgot to get his wife a present for their wedding anniversary, let's face it, who has not been in a similar situation? Jas wanted to not only stop this happening again but also to help other people who might find themselves in a similar situation.

This is where the idea of MyGiftGenie came from, it's not just selling gifts, it solves people's problems. MyGiftGenie is a service where you can set reminders for many different occasions (birthdays, Mother's Day, Father's Day, anniversaries etc...), each with a different set of preferences and budget. There is no limit to the number of reminders you can set.

Four weeks before the event, MyGiftGenie will not only send you a reminder but will also suggest high quality luxury gifts that meet the recipient's preferences and your budget, which you purchase directly from the MyGiftGenie website in a few simple clicks. It also offers flowers and cards, so everything you need to make someone happy. Here's how it works:

1. You tell MyGiftGenie about your special events by creating a free account.

2. MyGiftGenie will remind you and provide gift ideas matching your preferences and budget.
