the best-of-the-best tire dealers out there. Year after year of this competition, the North American tire dealers continue to raise the bar when it comes to professionalism, dedication and innovation. They work very hard at setting a high standard among businesses of all types – even beyond our industry. They have a lot to be proud of.” (end quote)

The 2016 Top Shop Award finalist were a select group of over 150 entrants. Judges selected 25 semi-finalists which were then required to complete an extensive entry form and provide details about their business including size, sales mix, merchandising techniques, customer service, training, achievement, and their role in their community. From there, eight semi-finalists were chosen for final judging by an independent panel of judges who then identified the finalist.

Mr. Luppino said “We recognize that without our customers, we wouldn't be where we are today. We're part of a community that's important to us. We love being able to give back. It has nothing to do
