Author and Spiritual Growth Coach and Inspirational Speaker, Tricia Andreassen added as Radio Show Host for WGSN-DB Going Solo Network Radio added a new, hour-long travel show to its weekly lineup: "Unlock Your Inner Warrior Within With Tricia Andreassen". A mix of guest interviews and listener calls, "Unlock The Inner Warrior With Tricia" focuses on how to tap into the strength that we all have been born with.
"Along the way, we have gotten caught up in the robotic responsibilities of life. When those responsibilities take center stage it is difficult to remember what our passions were once within us at a time. I have experienced in my coaching that it can get so muddled and buried down that folks have told me, "Tricia, I don't even know what my strengths are anymore."

The author of 3 Best Sellers on Business Marketing, Success and Resilience, Tricia's personal mission is to take these teachings with a combined fusion of logical and spiritual connection through all forms of media including books, radio, online education, TV and even movies. After being interviewed by CeCe Shantz of WGSN she was offered her own show which will be syndicated to International channels.

"Radio provides the listener to be anywhere and create a space to reflect, take notes and learn specific strategies that will build their business and life. These strategies will spill over into all areas of their relationships: career, family, dreams the want to achieve parenting, faith and relationships," says Andreassen.

When we take a deep dive into who we are we can unlock that strength within us that we were born with. Over time, responsibilities and the expectations of others can weigh us down causing us to lose the pieces of ourselves along the way. I have found that if we learn how to clear the muddle from the story we have told ourselves and the beliefs we have allowed to put upon ourselves that we can truly find a way back to ourselves. It is in that we will be able to rediscover the dreams that we once had and also be inspired to rise up to the leader we have been purposed to be."
