

EquityBuild Finance Announces Donations to Families Experiencing Challenges Through Thanksgiving

Partnering with the Charity the Basket Brigade, EBF Will Help Relieve Concerns and Feed Even More Families This Year

PLANO, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, November 18, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EquityBuild Finance announces it will make special donations this Thanksgiving to help underprivileged families in Chicago. In an effort to make Thanksgiving memorable and bountiful for less fortunate families in Chicago, EquityBuild Finance is donating to the well-respected charity Chicago Basket Brigade.

This year Chicago Basket Brigade is set to exceed last year's delivery of 1,500 food baskets to families in need. This video shows more about what Chicago Basket Brigade does for the community.

The donations will be made according to the special deal happening through EquityBuild Finance. Their current private mortgage notes have a return of 16% APR with a 1-point Thanksgiving bonus. Through Thanksgiving Day, EquityBuild Finance will donate an additional ¼ point to Chicago Basket Brigade for each commitment made.

The Basket Brigade, founded by Shane Staats, was inspired by Tony Robbins' childhood experience, growing up in a struggling family when someone knocked on his door one Thanksgiving with a basket full of food. This gesture of giving turned into an unforgettable memory for Tony and led him to share his story at his events.

This charity's vision is to expand the community of volunteers so the gift of giving can grow. There are many upsetting issues and troubles in the underprivileged Chicago communities. Knowing the potential problems and complaints in these neighborhoods, the Basket Brigade supports thousands of struggling families each year at Thanksgiving to give them a sense of hope and caring community.

"It's a great way to give this month," said Shaun Cohen, vice president of EquityBuild. "The impact is real for families receiving these special meals. Our mission at EquityBuild Finance is to lift up underprivileged communities and neighborhoods in the Chicago area. We wanted our clients to be able to be part of this giving this season, so we can lift people up together."
