"At the heart of Silas Dent Zobal's beautiful and riveting new novel are the heartbreaking mysteries of parenthood and love. Through writing that is graceful and bare . . . 'The People of the Broken Neck' is . . . a gripping story of a man and his family on the run." — Derek Palacio

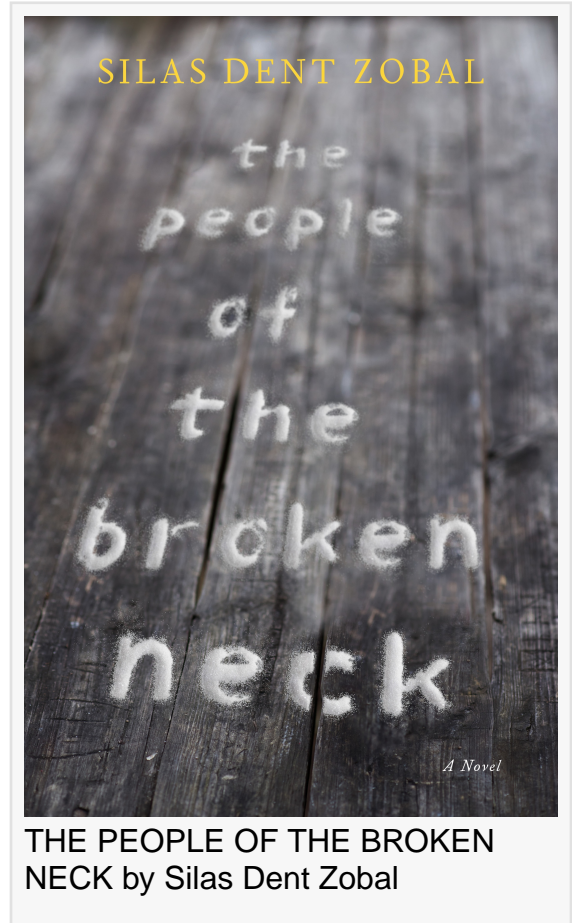

"Silas Dent Zobal's 'The People of the Broken Neck' is one of those rare hybrids: a thriller and a deeply philosophical novel, a novel so finely attuned to the dark currents of human love and aggression that it touches those wellsprings that lie beneath the human." — John Vernon

Unbridled Books has discovered another winner! Unbridled Books has famously launched the careers of several literary stars, notably Emily St. John Mandel, Peter Geye, Colin Dickey, Masha Hamilton and Andrea Portes. Unbridled Books was founded in 2004 by Frederick Ramey and Greg Michalson.

About the book: From the woods where he hides with his son and daughter, ex-Army Ranger Dominick Sawyer watches Agent Basin's flashlight beam bounce on the walls inside his cabin. Dom's wife is missing. His post-trauma hallucinations rip at him and a local deputy sheriff is dead. When the FBI agents recede into the night, the Sawyers begin to run in search of refuge in the American Northwest. But Agent Basin sees his own troubled family reflected in Dom's haunted existence, and his pursuit is relentless.

Silas Dent Zobal is the author of a lauded story collection, The Inconvenience of the Wings, named by Kirkus Reviews one of the "Best Indie Books of 2015." His fiction has appeared in the Missouri Review, Glimmer Train, New Orleans Review, North American Review, Green Mountain Review, Shenandoah, Wisconsin Review, and elsewhere. He has won the Glimmer Train Fiction Open.
