

Winners Announced in 33rd Annual North Carolina Holiday Flotilla

North Carolina Holiday Flotilla, Zambelli Fireworks, and Airlie Gardens Launch the Carolina Holidays

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH, NC, UNITED STATES, November 27, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Thanksgiving week, known as flotilla week in Wrightsville Beach, launched the Carolina holiday season with the 33rd annual North Carolina Holiday Flotilla, including a 4,000-round Zambelli Fireworks display, and the season opening for Airlie Gardens' 12th annual Enchanted Airlie.

"We had perfect weather Saturday evening for the flotilla and Enchanted Airlie," said Karen Pennington of Blockade Runner Beach Resort, host hotel for the flotilla. "The sky was clear; temperatures were seasonally warm at 55 to 60 degrees with a light breeze."

Winning flotilla entries were announced on Sunday at the Captain's Luncheon. For the second consecutive year, Brent Jernigan of Lake Waccamaw, North Carolina, captured the Best of Show trophy, which passes from winner to winner each year.

Airlie Gardens' Enchanted Airlie, with an estimated one million colorful lights, holiday displays, and seasonal music spread over 35-acres of walking trails, continues through December 22.

Remaining dates for Enchanted Airlie in 2016 include Dec. 2-4, Dec. 9-11, and Dec. 15-22. There are two reservation times each evening, 5-7 and 7-9 p.m. Enchanted Airlie tickets are available on the Airlie Gardens website, or Blockade Runner guests can call the hotel to make arrangements.

Airlie visitors should plan ahead. "We will sell out all dates and times," said Janine Powell, Airlie Gardens Director of Donor Relations.

Proceeds from Enchanted Airlie benefit the preservation and improvement of New Hanover County's historic Airlie Gardens.
