

Sophia Samuels of High Way to Boundless, LLC to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

MISSOULA, MONTANA, USA, November 29, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "Every life has a dream. Every dream has a life longing to be lived." – Sophia Samuels

Sophia Samuels is a certified life mastery consultant, transformational life coach and the founder of High Way To Boundless, LLC. Trained and certified through Mary Morrissey's Life Mastery Institute, Sophia's role is to help and support her clients identify and realize the longings and dreams of their life.

"The name of my business reflects the infinite potential that every human being possesses to live and expand into a greater version of themselves, no matter their circumstances," says Sophia. "We are not bound by the life we live. We are only limited by the thoughts that we think."

Whether working with individuals, groups or an organization, Sophia helps her clients create a blueprint they can follow to transition themselves from where they are to where they want to be.

Sophia holds a doctorate in counseling psychology with a clinical emphasis. However, over the course of her career as a clinician, professor and therapist, her interventions were problem focused.

My role is to champion and support my clients to discover and realize the greater part of themselves and walk a path toward happiness, peace and fulfillment: a life they love living.

Sophia Samuels

When she stepped away from active participation in the field of psychology, she sought a new avenue to offer her skills and long considered spiritual life coaching before she actually became a certified transformational life coach in 2015.

"The way I differentiate my work in the field of psychology from my passion as a transformational life coach is that in my former profession I spent the vast majority of my efforts trying to help people trudge painfully and slowly up a mountain to get some relief for their lives," says Sophia. "As a coach, I'm at the top of that mountain with my clients and I help them come down to answers, joy, peace, fulfillment and exuberance for life. That's what people can realize and that's what people are looking for."

That's why Sophia says Life Mastery is not about problems, but solutions. The "idea" of feeling better does not ignite the energy for a better life. Coaching provides the impetus and support for our dream realizations that lead to greater aliveness; coaching is a service designed to lead to personal fulfillment.

"Everything that we desire is already within us," says Sophia. "My role is to champion and support my clients to discover and realize the greater part of themselves and walk a path toward happiness, peace and fulfillment: a life they love living."

CUTV News Radio will feature Sophia Samuels in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on December 1st at 1pm EST and with Jim Masters on December 15th at 1pm EST.
