

The National Association of Neonatal Therapists Announces Upcoming 2016 NANT Virtual Summit

Online event entitled Recognizing, Reinforcing and Synchronizing Natural Breastfeeding Skills in the Premature Infant is Tuesday, December 6th

CINCINNATI, OH, USA, December 2, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Association of Neonatal Therapists (NANT) announced today that it will be holding a live, 90-minute Virtual Summit this Tuesday, December 6th from 1:00 PM EST to 2:30 PM EST in webinar format.

The special guests will be Jean Rhodes, PhD, CNM, IBCLC (Speaker) and Irene M. Zoppi RN, MSN, IBCLC Clinical Specialist for Medela, Inc. (Moderator).

"If you are on a team or task force to improve breastfeeding practices (and rates) for infants in the NICU, and you're not sure where to go for the latest information, support and guidance, then this webinar is a must," said NANT Founder and President Sue Ludwig, OTR/L.

Recognizing, Reinforcing and Synchronizing Natural Breastfeeding Skills in the Premature Infant is a free virtual event. It will include an interactive Q and A session at the conclusion of the program, and a recording will be made available to everyone who registers.

"We're very excited about this event, because attendees will receive downloadable tools that they can bring back to their teams for immediate use, and you will receive a certificate of attendance. We can't think of a better way to bring these timely and extremely valuable insights to as many people as possible," said Ludwig.

Attendees must register for The NANT Virtual Summit in order to attend the 90-minute webinar. Visit www.nantvirtuallsummit.com to register and for more information. This is time sensitive, as the Summit takes place on Tuesday, December 6th.

The National Association of Neonatal Therapists (NANT) is an organization created specifically for neonatal occupational therapists, physical therapists, and speech-language pathologists. NANT provides multiple ways for neonatal therapists to connect, learn, mentor and inspire while advancing this focused field of therapy on an international level.
