

Dr. Alvaro Ordóñez and Mr. Redondo Forced Disappearances: Transitional justice for Liliana Hernandez and accomplices.

"Like a House of Cards" entitled chapter describing collective crime against humanity: truth come to surface, masks fall like a house of cards...

BOGOTA, BOGOTA, COLOMBIA, December 3, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In Dr. Alvaro Ignacio Ordóñez and Mr. Oswaldo Redondo forced disappearance, situation was unlocked by the Colombian state. Lately multiple petitions were filed against institutions and natural persons. Many constitutional rights were violated; indignity of doctor Ordóñez's maternal family side is probatory, constitutional facts were not applied. They incurred on criminal, civil, family offenses; the file was purposely left in the hands of Liliana Hernández Montes, a lawyer known for corruption and her links with narcos; this woman helped by lawyers and doctor

Ordóñez maternal family used an alleged death judgment to strip without shame Dr. Ordóñez's only genetically proved son, while the alleged "legitimate" brother, Tomas Eduardo, refuses a DNA test... It is no a secret that the Colombian peace louanges reparation to the true victims of that long war.

Juan Manuel Santos, an extremely unpopular character in the country and Minister of Defense at the time of the "falsos positivos" knew how to convince foreign powers they need investments in Colombia and that his peace project was viable. Last October a plebiscite said NO to his peace project and a few weeks ago after calling his ex-friend Alvaro Uribe Velez at a meeting, an unstable peace was finally signed. The FARC will have political voice, something that Colombians did not want, the idiosyncrasy of the country and its strategic place in Latin America is not in fact based neither on social nor communist principles rather consumerism and capitalism. However the tendency is now turning and Timochenko, commandant of FARC, wants a "coalition" for him to be presidential candidate. Few weeks ago worldwide newspapers surprisingly announced a Juan Manuel Santos Nobel Peace Prize; those newspapers and journalists as Lia Fowler, an US journalist and former FBI special agent, revealed that Kaci Kullmann Five, director of the Nobel Peace Committee, was boarding member of Statoil, a Norwegian oil company that in 2014

obtained juicy contracts with the Government Santos getting exploration licenses in the Caribbean Colombia! José Miguel Viván responsible for Latin America of the NGO Human Rights Watch criticized often the point of justice and victims of the agreements between the Government and the FARC. "Las Dos Orillas" denounced a "peace carousel", indicating that the government invested last year more than 600 billion of Colombian pesos in media monopolies. Contracts that combine advertising on television, radio, internet, newspapers. In October, the United Nations Committee published the balance and recommendations for the Colombia National Government informing about the situation of Civil and Political prisoners there and the persistence of human rights violations as well as the eradication of coca crops which have curiously increased the last 4 years...big job for a country in "Peace". Santos must respect the constitution, the Army clarifies that in this case they do not know from where came from the note he wrote on his book about the collective crime against humanity; a "writer" has his sources, it only seems that the sources reviewing his book were wrong! Who then lies... the Army, Santos or the FARC who already stated in their public forum that the Colombian Army is one of the largest sewers of the State ... sewer with which they now will work in... Peace? The INPEC has revealed the whereabouts of commandants who were NOT responsible for the crime, they must be summoned to testify in a case that was constructed out of no files and manipulated by Hernández Montes with help and blessing of Consuelo Giraldo Zuluaga her family and her sons. Santos, however, has tried to put some effort forwarding multiple petitions passed by the civil party.

The supreme court of justice filed a criminal suit against Edgar Martínez Romero, governor of the department of Sucre, who recently claims to have known of the alligators that paramilitaries had ... "nobody said anything." Photos of him intertwined with Nelson Stand Berrio, right arm of the sanguine Rodrigo Mercado Peluffo "Cadena" have resurfaced, "Cadena" used to send his accountants Willer Cobo Lopez and Humberto Frasser to doctor Ordóñez's end...

The obvious complicity of Rafael Eduardo Ordóñez of Lavalin is revealed and transmitted to the authorities. Mario Giraldo Zuluaga stubbornly and cowardly still believing he can keep silence without explaining certain aspects that had already predicted by Olga Lucía Uribe Caicedo. They even have said they won't respond, and/or open a door for conciliation. What do they fear/cover? In the region where the live "opinion" and "appearance" are more important than "being"...there is a social class in Colombia called "new rich", born in the 1980s when drug money went through all social classes. Many of them travel to the state of Florida and others, living and/or working illegally in the American system, taking advantage of their relatives "residence", even more some were undocumented for years now claiming "residence..."

Liliana Hernández Montes and his accomplices cannot stop the process of truth, facing their worst enemy: the truth of the civil part!. She and accomplices have blocked the law and moral principles teaching their children how to perpetuate evil that corrodes Colombia: corruption; violating constitutional rights of equality for the victims of collective crime against humanity. Protected in the past by criminals and narcos, the Nule as well as the unworthy mother of doctor Ordóñez, known for cruelty and abusing her sons. That a mother can not love her own children and grandchildren is enigmatic but that she loves appearances and pretending is a mystery. The storm does not end for her or her family.

"Like a House of Cards" entitled chapter in which Santos describes horrific collective crime against humanity we deal with in our articles, the truth has come to the surface, masks will continue to fall...like a house of cards. Santos strives to receive his award in Norway. He thinks he's doing great but the reality looks slightly different. The case unique in Colombia advances to great sadness of deeply implicated who couldn't check to terror but experience in own flesh a check and mate!
