Online dating scams is a big part of the cyber war that is part of online terrorism dating scams is an epidemic and a crisis, that requires everyone's attention.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, December 4, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cyber war has been happening and no one is paying attention. Even though cyber crimes are damaging and devastating like terrorist who blow up buildings.. Online dating scams is a big part of the cyber war that we are experiencing in today and age. The terrorism of online dating scams is an epidemic that is turning into a crisis, that requires everyone's attention. Imagine losing all of your savings and assets, your emotional feelings and self-respect destroyed, all at the same time. Never send anyone money that you are not married to or know personally for years. I personally never send anyone money period; unless it's my children.

#Cybercrimes are online scams that are an epidemic that is a devastating terrorism. Online dating scams is a big part of the cyber war. It's a new era of terrorism and crisis. #MJPI

MJ PI

MJ PI refers to this as one aspect of the “Cyber war on Americans.” These are criminals who hide behind “electronic doors” to facilitate their evil deeds. He believes it is imperative that we stop and defeat these cyber criminals by educating everyone and sharing this article. The victims emotional devastation is horrifying.

online romantic scammers and ONLINE DATING SCAM are the cyber war that we are experiencing today.

Blue Systems International, private investigations firm reports an epidemic that is siphoning all Americans savings and lives. An increasing calls from online dating scams that have reached billions of dollars in losses. A small number of victims report the online dating scam because of feeling foolish and acute depression.

Detective MJ elaborates more on the systems that the con artist use. Some scams are very advanced and perfected and others are simply basic tricks that the scammers developed depending on their experience. These master scammers are able to penetrate and basically hack you, including your mind and emotions. This scheme is becoming one of the worst crimes in American history since these criminals prey on the elderly's good nature and kindness. Mid age men and women are not exempt; Since they can be a lucrative target.

Online dating scams start by the thief placing a fake photo and identity of a handsome and beautiful private investigator can help others sexy person who is a former model. The victim makes contact with the fake identity online and the scheme begins. Online thieves and scammers have figured out how to entice the victims to make the first contact; After realizing phishing emails don't work anymore. Trial, error and consistency are the equation for perfection.

Several investigations of online dating scam cases revealed that the victim made the initial contact with the scammer, through an online dating website. The scammer always speaks with the victim for couple days and afterwards they claim that they will be leaving the country for a business trip. The victim discusses with the scammer all of their life sensitive information and sentimental values. It's amazing how a criminal can use that information that is the divulged with pleasure from the victim to take full advantage and control.

In other cases investigations revealed sophisticated online dating scams involve multiple subjects including professional psychologist and professionals who know and understand human behavior, we call them master manipulators. The master manipulators get together and listen in on every conversation between the victim and the scammer. This team guides and directs the scammer in order to perfect and hustle the victim until they run out of money. The professional would analyze every word the victim says and would advise to caller of a perfect response. The victim has no chance of surviving the master manipulators. This is an aggressive mind and emotional attack on the victim is described as if multiple physically fit individuals attack and assault one person. This type of scam is basically taking the victim through a dramatic scenarios that involve the victim and the scammers virtual lies of "I need help".

The element of surprise and multiple subjects would empower any victim as we see in horror movies. It's amazing when we see multiple criminals piling up on one person; we realize that these criminals should be punished to the fullest extend of the law. Online dating scams are devastating and exactly as an actual physical Attack; however we don't pay attention; since these attacks are not considered as dangerous as the physical injuries.

Everyone is encouraged to run a background check when meeting someone online since crime is a record high and your emotional feelings are worth more than you think.

private investigator Los Angeles county exposes scammers

Otherwise known as every online dating scam that preys upon good and hard working American people. MJ PI wants the public to know that he is receiving an increasing number of calls and inquiries from individuals and victims from all walks of life (at least 1-2 per week) falling victim to these slick cyber crooks. Sadly, he states this only represents 1-2% of those being victimized because only a small number are willing to come forward.

Detective MJ describes the process these con artists use to lure victims as something similar to grooming. They are clever! He emphasizes that he has had people with no education or Master's and Doctoral Degrees fall victim to this, so these criminals are master manipulators. Once they have you in their grip, connected to them, caught up in their drama, little by little, in ever increasing amounts, they begin to siphon money from

you. We also need to protect our senior citizens who are especially vulnerable. They are often lonely, place a different value on money, and due to fears of being humiliated, will not report being victims of these types of criminal scams. The best defense is to not answer unsolicited emails and definitely never provide anyone with your financial information, social security number or anything that can compromise your money, credit, or identity.

Afterwards, thoughts and ideas come to mind on how to immediately prevent these crimes from happening again.

Please forward this information to everyone.
