

Private Jet Services Announces Partnership & Private Island Flights with The Meridian Club, Turks and Caicos-Pine Cay

Partnership enables guests to experience an unplugged vacation, known for one of the best beaches in the world

SEABROOK, NEW HAMPSHIRE, UNITED STATES, December 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Private Jet Services, a leader in the private aviation industry since 2003, and The Meridian Club, Turks and Caicos, an award-winning luxury boutique, beach-front private island resort, today announced a partnership offering private island flights and intriguing property inclusions.

The partnership between Private Jet Services and The Meridian Club, Turks and Caicos highlights the benefits of flying with a veteran global aviation firm while also delivering a total divine experience as a guest of the unpretentious yet upscale property; the only resort on Pine Cay, affording guests a desired serene retreat set away from their day-to-day life.

"Following a very strong 2016 Fall season, the PJS Client Service Teams and the 24/7 Flight Command Center anticipate record volume of flying through the winter season from our PJS Jet Card Members," said Michael Farley, Chief Revenue Officer of Private Jet Services. "As our teams ready for the winter season, we are thrilled to introduce the exclusive benefits available to our members through our partnership with The Meridian Club, Turks and Caicos. As a private island experience, the property is truly unique and an opportunity to combine unparalleled customer service with the ultimate break for relaxation."

New PJS Members enrolling this Fall in the 25 Hour Jet Card program will receive a six-night package which includes beachfront accommodations, private taxi/boat transfers, private plane landing and parking fees, all meals and activities, an island golf cart, a beautiful picnic lunch paired with wine experience, as well as daily snorkel trips, watersports and yoga practice.

"The partnership with Private Jet Services is extremely valuable, as it connects one of our niche markets perfectly," said Melanie Alexander, Marketing Director of The Meridian Club, Turks and

Caicos. “Our property appeals to high net worth individuals interested in independent travel, where they can “fall off the grid” and focus on what they are there to do, whether it be a romantic getaway, an important wedding, or corporate retreat, so I am certain PJS clients will benefit knowing about our resort.”

About Private Jet Services

As a leader in the private aviation industry since 2003, our clients include a long list of those whose travel is truly “mission critical” including former Presidents of the United States, NASA, National Hockey League (NHL), Major League Baseball (MLB), NCAA Division I Colleges, political campaigns, private executive retreats, many of the world’s largest music tours, well known corporations as well as some of the most private and recognizable individuals in the world. PJS offers customized solutions to fit each individual’s aviation needs including the Jet Card which includes competitive fixed pricing and 24/7 service, a signature Aviation Consultancy program, and Ad-Hoc charter. The PJS Operations team works around the clock and handles all itineraries to ensure the highest level of service is provided to each of our clients. We believe in proactive and complete communication, thereby allowing our clients to render fully informed decisions about their travel plans in a timely manner. By implementing secure, convenient and expeditious logistics, we invest ourselves in every detail of our clients’ experiences from the initial consultation until each journey is safely completed. Our charge is to ensure every facet of travel is executed with intuitive attention and the high standards accrued over decades of application. Visit www.pjsjetcard.com or call 855-604-0011.

About The Meridian Club, Turks and Caicos

The Meridian Club, Turks and Caicos, an award-winning boutique, environmentally sensitive private island resort, is centrally positioned on a secluded, two-mile stretch of one of the finest beaches in the Caribbean. The only resort on the 800-acre award-winning private island of Pine Cay is known for what it doesn’t have, such as TV’s, clock radios, locks on the doors, etc., (so guests can truly unwind). Rates do include boat/taxi transfers, all meals, optional in-room breakfast service, daily snorkeling trips, free bike and tennis rentals, and use of jogging trails, kayaks, paddle boards, and Hobie Cats. Optional additions include spa services, private fishing charters, glow worm tours, excursions to other islands and more. The Meridian Club, Turks and Caicos is a world away, yet only a 15-minute journey by boat from the bustle of Providenciales, ideally suited to couples seeking an unpretentious yet upscale romantic retreat, anniversary or birthday celebration, family reunions, retreats, corporate incentives, or an extraordinary wedding venue.
