Fractional ownership - the simple and secure way to experience Tuscany all year-round

Borgo Vagli

So, what better way to experience the region's ever-changing and stunning panoramas than owning a unique piece of it? For those looking for a secure way to buy a Tuscan home Fractional Ownership has rapidly become the smartest way to invest, travel and discover the diversity of this beautiful region.

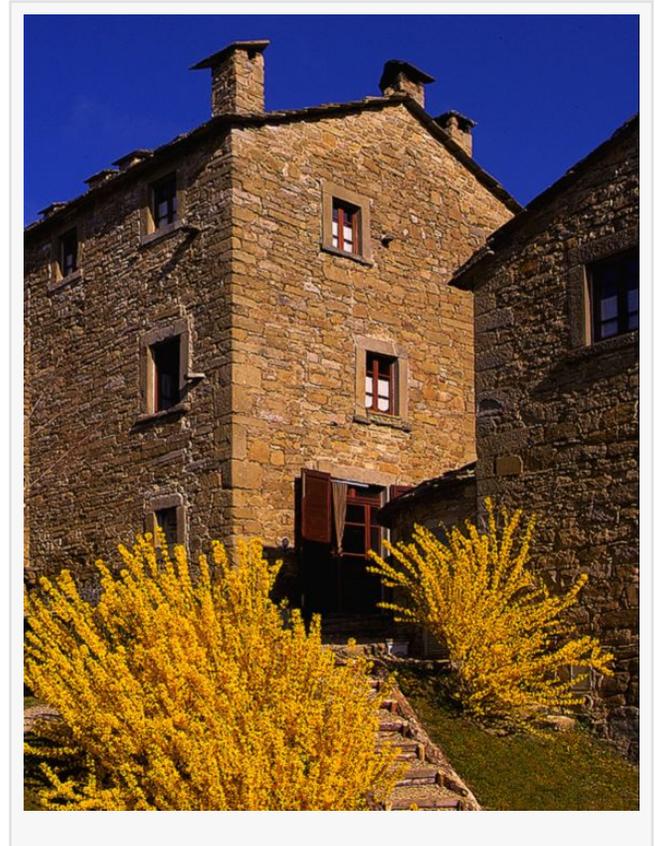

The fractional ownership concept gives owners the possibility to buy a home that is fully managed and serviced throughout the year. It is the perfect hassle-free solution for those who wish to experience Tuscany throughout the seasons but do not want the complications of property restoration or out-right purchase.

This shrewd investment enables international property owners to relax and share their experiences with like-minded people and enjoy every second of their Tuscan adventure, with none of the anxieties and restrictions of sole-ownership. A professional and friendly team privately manage Borgo di Vagli.

The slow pace of a small Tuscan village offers owners an ideal environment to reconnect and rediscover the real sense of togetherness - so dearly valued in Italy. What better way to experience the Tuscan lifestyle than sitting gathered around an old wooden table, enjoying precious and valued time with friends and family enjoying locally grown fresh produce and good wine?

One of the leading destinations offering fractional ownership opportunities in Italy is award-winning Borgo di Vagli. An expertly restored medieval village situated in the heart of the Tuscan countryside close to Cortona. A secluded country retreat overlooking the rich Niccone valley, Borgo di Vagli offers fractional owners the opportunity to enjoy the Tuscan Dream without the hassles of outright ownership. A small village of 21 beautifully restored stone houses and residences, the village includes a traditional trattoria with its wood-fired pizza oven and seasonal menu, heated outdoor hilltop swimming pool and acres of private land including olive groves and woodlands, ideal for hiking.

Borgo di Vagli currently has a few fractional ownership opportunities remaining starting from €43,500.
