SEWICKLEY, PENNSYLVANIA, USA, December 9, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Feeling frustrated in your relationships? Do you have a boss, coworker or spouse who doesn't appreciate you? A mother who nags? Teenagers who drive you crazy?

Nancy Smyth and Sharon Eakes, co-founders of Two Wise Women, a coaching and training organization, focus on creating great relationships. By sharing the wisdom of their own life-changing experiences and coaching expertise, they help clients make significant changes.

"We've had our clashes and heartaches with others and learned what doesn't work," Nancy laughs. "We found it was our thinking and behavior that caused pain."

These two leaders love helping people transform. Their solutions work in personal relationships and also in the competitive, professional world. Long-standing struggles are resolved. Even healthy, satisfying, relationships improve. Clients are happier and freer than they ever imagined possible.

"We believe that the quality of our relationships determines the quality of our lives," says Sharon. "To be successful as a leader, politician, employee or parent, seeing the humanity in others is the key. Even the most difficult relationships can change dramatically."
