

Cache Metals Has Been Nominated Again for the Canadian Bullion Dealer of the Year Award

Cache Metals, 2015 Canadian Bullion Dealer of the Year, has been nominated again for 2016 Canadian Bullion Dealer of the Year award by Bullion.Directory.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, December 6, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cache Metals Is Proud to Be Recognized for Its Commitment to Bullion Services across Canada

Toronto, On., Dec. 1, 2016 - Cache Metals is pleased to announce that it has once again been nominated for the prestigious Canadian Bullion Dealer of the Year award by Bullion.Directory. This coveted award is presented to the company that receives the most votes from the public based on customer satisfaction and overall company performance. Cache Metals was the winner of this award in 2015 and is proud to be nominated once again this year.

"This is such an honor", said Robert Rosenzweig, CEO of Cache Metals. "This is a special award because it directly reflects how our clients and customers view our services. Not only are we reaching out to bullion customers through our local Toronto retail store but our company buys and resells bars and coins online across Canada."

Cache Metals always puts the clients first and recognizes the need for analysis and research to keep its customers a step ahead of the game. Its competitive pricing and top-notch quality service allows the company to reach the forefront in the field both online and in a retail environment.

"This type of feedback from our customers demonstrates that we're hitting the mark and delivering products at a price level that our clients appreciate." said CEO, Robert Rosenzweig. "Cache Metals is dedicated to providing seamless and rewarding transactions at the best prices possible."

The award nomination recognizes the commitment to excellence that sets Cache Metals apart. On-site pricing and research is provided in real time and bullion experts are always just a phone call away. As the company continues to expand, it is dedicated to providing the same quality service that its clients expect. The company consistently keeps its finger on the pulse of the research advances that have been made so that state-of-the-art real-time data and analysis can be presented on the website.
